DOINGS OF CONGRESS.

Final Debate in the House on the Hepburn Canal Bill.

SENATE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY.

Appointment of Payne and Shaw Confirmed—Bills to Make Census Bureau Permanent and for Department of Commerce Favored.

Washington, Jan. 9.—In anticipation of a vote upon the Nicaragua canal bill there was a large attendance on the floor when the house met. Under the order that the general debate was to close at 2 o'clock, the bill was then read for amendment under the five-minute rule.

Mr. Adamson (Ga.), the first speaker of the day, urged the passage of the Hepburn bill without amendment. He argued that the time had come for action, and equivocation now could only result in delaying the commencement of the canal. If the Panama company had an offer to make which we could accept, he said, there would be time enough to take advantage of it when the bill was pending in the senate, or later in conference.

Mr. Wooten (Tex.) also argued that the bill should be passed without amendment. If the Morris amendment was adopted, he said, the canal would become a conditional project, surrounded by doubts and difficulties which might doom it to final failure owing to international political complications. He declared it was rather a strange coincidence that those who now wanted to amend the bill had in the past opposed the passage of any bill. He regarded the Morris amendment as a modern Trojan horse.

Upon request of Mr. Davis (Fla.) the time for general debate was extended to 2:30 p. m.

Mr. Sparkman (Fla.) spoke in favor of the Hepburn bill.

Mr. Cannon (Ills.), chairman of the appropriations committee, next took the floor. Mr. Cannon said it was doubtful if war taxes could be removed if the government was committed to such a gigantic enterprise. He said he would vote for the Morris amendment, and if that failed would move to recommit, so the bill could be amended.

Mr. Dearmond (Mo.) favored leaving the question of the routes to the president. With alternative authority he could make better terms. The bill as presented was not mature. He asked whether the army engineer corps or a syndicate is to build the canal.

At 2 o'clock Mr. Hepburn took the floor to close general debate. He replied chiefly to the criticisms of Mr. Cannon, and drew frequent applause and laughter as he tossed his shafts of sarcasm at the chairman of the appropriations committee. The general debate closed at 2:45, and the bill was then read for amendment under the five-minute rule.

In the Senate.

The senate committee on military affairs unanimously agreed upon its report on the case making charges against Lieutenant Colonel H. O. S. Hestand of the army, and the report was presented to the senate by Senator Cockrell as soon as that body convened. The report contains a concise statement of the facts in the case, as brought out by the inquiry under the Pettigrew resolution of last session, and casts no reflection upon any of the officers of the government whose names were mentioned in connection with the case. No action was taken on the report.

The senate committee on census affairs unanimously agreed to recommend the passage of the bill introduced by Senator Hale to create a permanent census bureau. The committee was addressed by Director Merriam, who said that with a permanent establishment the work of the bureau could not only be better done, but it could be done more economically. The bill is a measure of six lines and makes permanent the existing bureau.

The senate committee on commerce authorized a favorable report on Senator Nelson's bill for the creation of an executive department of the government to be known as the department of commerce.

A house bill appropriating $10,000 for furnishing transcripts of records at 12:40 p. m. the senate went into executive session and at 1:50 adjourned till Monday.

The senate in executive session confirmed the nomination of Leslie M. Shaw of Iowa to be secretary of the treasury, and Henry C. Payne of Wisconsin to be postmaster general.

WALL STREET WANTS

Reduction of Internal Revenue and a Department of Commerce.

New York, Jan. 9.—At the annual meeting of the board of trade and transportation it was unanimously resolved that since the reduction made by the last congress has not decreased the revenue as much as was expected, and a further reduction might be made without detriment, the board of trade and transportation urges the repeal of such taxation as has proved a burden to commerce, especially such taxes as do not protect manufacturing interests.

A resolution was also adopted urging upon congress the establishment of a new department under a secretary of commerce and industries, who shall be a member of the president's cabinet, and in which department there shall be a bureau of reciprocity charged with the duty of investigating the conditions of any industry affected by a proposed treaty.

Resented by Students.

Chattanooga, Jan. 9.—The students of the medical department of Grant university in mass meeting, by a unanimous rising vote, asked the trustees of the university to disavow the service of Rev. R. J. Cooke, professor of historical theology, for his attack on the Daughters of the Confederacy in a religious paper. When Dr. Cooke entered the mess hall while the students were at supper he was loudly hissed. Grant university is under the control of the Southern Educational society and the Freedman's Aid society of the Northern Methodist church. The editorial in question compared the Daughters of the Confederacy to Emma Goldman and Herr Most, and charged them with teaching treason.

Eddy to Have a Vacation

Washington, Jan. 9.—It is understood that Spencer Eddy, who has been acting as United States charge of legation at Constantinople during the leave of Minister Leishman, is about to go on leave now that the minister has returned to his post. The officials here speak in terms of high praise of the manner in which Mr. Eddy has discharged the duties of charge, especially those pertaining to the case of Miss Stone. It is understood that there have been no recent developments in that matter but the ransom money has been posted, and it is believed it will only be a question of a short time before the kidnapers conclude to accept it.

St. Louis Bank Robbery Grows.

St. Louis, Jan. 9.—Night Watchman David Paffin of the Southern Illinois National bank at East St. Louis, Ills., reported that an attempt was made to enter the bank and that he fired through the door and drove the robbers away. L. N. Hughes, who is under arrest charged with complicity in the robbery of the National Stock Yards bank, Monday night, still declares he is innocent of the charge. He insists he was home sick at the time. The total loss of the Stock Yards National bank by the robbery is now estimated at $10,000 by President Knox.

Asphyxiated by Escaping Gas.

Philadelphia, Jan. 9.—Charles Caleb Cresson, the head of a prominent and influential family in this city and Germantown, was found dead at his home in Germantown, having been asphyxiated by gas escaping from a heater in his room. Mr. Cresson was many years at the head of a wholesale drug store in this city, and was a noted philanthropist.

South American Revolutions.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 9.—It is reported here that a revolution has broken out in Paraguay. President Acosel of that republic is said to be a prisoner. According to a private dispatch received from Managua, Nicaragua, a revolt occurred recently at Bogota, capital of Colombia. President Marroquin was said to have been made a prisoner.

Boston, Jan. 9.—Admitting that his picture was in the rogue's gallery, and that for a period of years he had been familiar with the lowest depths of New York opium joints, yet pleading for his life, once governor of South Carolina, was sentenced to four months imprisonment for the larceny of an overcoat.

THE RICHES OF EARTH

Yield of American Mines Passes the Billion Dollar Mark.

OFFICIAL REPORT OF MINERAL OUTPUT

Great Britain Falls Further Behind in the Production of Coal—Iron, Coke, Petroleum and Precious Metals—Effect of Strikes.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The value of the mineral products of the United States in 1900 exceeds for the first time the $1,000,000,000 mark, according to the geological survey report on mineral resources which has just been issued. The exact figures were $1,087,603,606, as compared with $971,900,894 in 1899, a gain of $95,702,712. Iron and coal alone yielded more than half of the grand total, their combined value being over $566,000,000. The statistical summary of the production of the various minerals has already been published.

The total value at iron mines of the 27,553,161 long tons produced in 1900 was $66,590,504, as compared with $34,999,077 in 1899. The average price was $2.42 per long ton, as compared with $1.42 per ton in 1899, a gain of 70.4 per cent. The lowest price per ton was 82 cents in Texas (where convict labor is an element in mining). The highest price was $3.71 in Colorado. Of 19,059,393 long tons shipped from the Lake Superior region in 1900 only 498,087 tons went by rail. Over 2,700,000 long tons went to furnaces at Chicago and in Michigan and Wisconsin; over 15,700,000 tons went to lower lake ports, of which the three ports of Ashtabula, Cleveland and Conneaut, in Ohio, received more than 9,500,000 tons.

The most important gains in gold production were in the Seward peninsula of Alaska, the Cripple Creek district of Colorado, and in Arizona. The yield for the year was valued at $79,171,000, a gain of $8,117,600 over 1899. The silver output was of the commercial value of $35,741,140. The report notes great activity for the year in old and new copper properties.

In 1899 the production of coal in the United States exceeded for the first time that of Great Britain; in 1900 the lead over Great Britain was much increased, thus fixing the United States firmly in the first place among the world's producers. Next to this the most interesting feature of the production of 1900 was the marked increase in value compared with the increase in tonnage. The production in 1900 was 29,818,27 short tons, valued at $306,391,364, the increase over 1899 being more than 16,000,000 tons in amount and more than $50,000,000 in value. The strike in the anthracite region cut short its output by probably 5,000,000 long tons, and cost the miners something over $10,000,000 in wages, and the strike in the Cumberland region decreased Maryland's production about 700,000 long tons as compared with 1899. The advance in value of bituminous coal was unprecedented. The average price per ton has risen from 87 cents in 1899 to $1.04 in 1900. The export of coal in 1900 amounted to only a little over 3 per cent of the total product, imports still smaller.

Fully 95 per cent of the total coke production in 1900 of 29,533,348 short tons, an increase of 864,779 tons over 1899, was taken from the Appalachian fields, which embrace the great coking regions of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Alabama, Virginia and Tennessee. The average value per short ton of coke at the ovens in 1899 was $1.76, in 1900 it was $2.31.

The crude petroleum production exceeded all records, a large increase being especially noted in West Virginia, California, Ohio, Indiana and Texas. The Texas development was chiefly in 1901. Over 91 per cent of the total production came from the Appalachian and Ohio and Indiana fields. The indications for 1901 are for a largely increased output of petroleum over 1900.

Lion Roaring at Germany.

London, Jan. 9.—The stinging rebuke administered to Joseph Chamberlain by Chancellor von Bülow in the reichstag at Berlin for the reference in Mr. Chamberlain's speech at Edinburgh, Oct. 25, to the conduct of the German army in the war with France, 1870-71, has caused intense and widespread irritation here, and has markedly increased the bitterness of the Anglo-German discord. The St. James Gazette calls Count von Bülow a "swaggering pharisee," and other London papers make comments which, it is thought, may further inflame the public, already angered in consequence of the snub administered by Emperor William a few days ago in the North German Gazette. This paper is the chief mouthpiece of the government, and in it a note appeared saying that the statement in the English press that the German emperor had pressed the Prince of Wales to attend his birthday celebration was untrue, and explaining that King Edward had suggested the visit and that Emperor William had sent the invitation.

THAT TUNNEL WRECK.

New York Authorities Are Trying to Locate the Responsibility.

New York, Jan. 9.—At the Grand Central station it was said that as the district attorney had commenced an investigation to determine the cause of and responsibility for the wreck in the New York Central tunnel, Wednesday, the railroad officials had definitely postponed their investigation, and would present all the facts in their possession to the county prosecutor.

Thomas P. Murphy of New Rochelle, whose legs were broken and who was badly hurt internally in the tunnel wreck, is at Bellevue hospital. His left leg, which was badly crushed, will probably be amputated.

Albert Wedley, a florist of this city, with a home in New Rochelle, who had both legs broken and who suffered internal injuries, is improving.

In New Rochelle, where all but one of the dead lived, business was almost entirely suspended Thursday, when several of the bodies of the dead were taken to New Rochelle. The town was in mourning, and many persons who had no relatives in the wreck made visits to those who had suffered loss and offered sympathy and assistance. Of the injured 29 reside in New Rochelle.

Another investigation will probably be made by President Cantor of the borough of Manhattan. Mr. Cantor said: "I will confer with the corporation counsel regarding my authority over tunnels exclusively used by railroads. I am not fully satisfied as to my power in this matter. As there are investigations being made by the district attorney, the coroners and the state railroad commission, I thought it best to find out my authority before I attempted an investigation of my own. My opinion is that if electricity had been used by the railroad the accident would not have happened. I visited the scene of the wreck and watched the trains passing through the tunnel. The volumes of smoke from the locomotives was so dense that it was impossible to discern the lights."

French Claims Against Venezuela.

Paris, Jan. 9.—Inquiries in official quarters regarding the attitude of France toward Venezuela developed that Frenchmen having claims against Venezuela are urging their government to adopt coercive measures. The government, however, is undecided whether to do so or not. Nevertheless, in view of the possibility of such action it has informally sounded Washington on the feeling of the United States in the matter. It can be positively said that whatever action France may take will be absolutely independent of that of Germany with which country there will be no co-operation. The authorities here are waiting for a turn of events in the civil war in Venezuela, but in any case the action of France will be non-political, and will be confined to obtaining satisfaction for material injury to the interests of French citizens.

Harvey Logan Identified.

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 9.—General Manager D. S. Elliott and Messenger C. H. Smith of the Great Northern Express company and Fireman M. F. O'Neil, who were on the train which was robbed by bandits at Wagner, Mon., July 3, have positively identified Harvey Logan, the man under arrest here, as one of the men who robbed the express car of the New Montana bank bills and other valuables. The same train which brought these three men here had as passengers a man and woman, who came on Great Northern tickets, and who are believed to be friends of Harvey Logan. They are thought to have followed the Elliott party to this city. They are being looked for by the police.

Germany's Budget For 1902.

Berlin, Jan. 9.—The minister of finance, Baron von Rheinbaben, in the lower house of the diet, presented the budget for 1902, in which the ordinary estimates show a deficit of 70,000,000 marks. This, he explained, had been covered without special difficulty on account of the surplus which at the close of 1900 amounted to 71,500,000 marks. Referring to the Polish question, Baron von Rheinbaben demurred the Poles that "Who soweth the wind reapeth the whirlwind," adding that they were now going to reap the whirlwind. The former president and vice presidents of the lower house were re-elected by acclamation.

Helena, Mon., Jan. 9.—Acting on the suggestion of Governor Nash of Ohio, Governor Toole has issued an address in which he asks the school children of the state and the people generally to observe Jan. 29, the anniversary of the birthday of the late President McKinley, as a holiday.

NEW ROAD FOR CHINA

It Will Be a Factor in an Immense International System.

AMERICAN CAPITALISTS BACK OF IT.

Direct Mail Communication Between Capital of the Flowery Kingdom and European Capitals—Will Tap Rich Mineral Regions.

New York, Jan. 9.—The announcement is authoritatively made that the China Development company has been organized and that an official demand has been made on the Chinese government for the issue of bonds against the construction of the Haikow-Canton railway, which has been undertaken by the company. A board of directors has been chosen, consisting of August Belmont, Pierre Mail, Frederick W. Whittier, Charles A. Whittier and William Barclay Parsons of New York, and Colonel Albert Thys and Joseph De Volder of Brussels. Mr. Parsons is president, General Whittier is treasurer and W. K. Bryce is secretary of the company. The necessary funds have been subscribed by the stockholders with which to begin the construction of the first section of the road, and the money has been deposited with J. P. Morgan & Company, the company's bankers. It is said that a general manager will be dispatched to China during the present month to make the necessary preparations for beginning construction, and that construction will follow shortly.

It is stated that the American China Development company will take up the work of construction, continuing the road from Hankow, or, more properly speaking, from Wuchang, on the southern bank of the Yangtze, southward to Canton. Connecting with the line under construction by the Belgian syndicate, and apparently having a friendly understanding with the projectors of that enterprise, the American line will furnish the southern section of a great trunk road, extending from the capital to Canton. At Peking connection will be made with the Chinese Imperial railway, where the northern arm joins with the Manchurian branch of the Trans-Siberian road in the neighborhood of New Chwang. Direct rail communication will thus be provided between Canton and the great capitals of Europe. The provinces to be traversed by the American line have a population twice as great as that of the United States, and are rich both in agricultural and mineral wealth. The development of an important coal mining region in the province of Hu-Naa and other demands of local traffic will require the construction of branches, which will bring the total length of the line between Hankow and Canton up to about 900 miles. From Canton it is intended to extend the line on the point of the mainland opposite Hongkong, a piece of construction extending over 130 miles, which an English syndicate is understood to be ready to undertake.

River Choked at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Jan. 9.—Despite the almost summerlike weather that has been prevailing here for several days, the river is blocked opposite South St. Louis and traffic cut off by an immense gorge that formed during the cold spell in December. It has formed a dam across the river at Arsenal Island. Unsuccessful attempts to break the gorge with dynamite have been made. A new trouble is now threatened. The pent-up water is trying to make a new channel around the east side of Arsenal Island, over which Illinois and Missouri fought in the United States supreme court for possession years ago. It was decided in favor of Illinois in consequence of the channel on the east side of the island being choked up. If the channel is reopened another dispute for the possession of the island may ensue.

Violet Rays For Cancer.

New York, Jan. 9.—As a last resort, Dr. John E. Richardson of Brooklyn, who has been a sufferer from cancer many years and whose life was despaired of, is submitting to a test of the newly discovered violet ray treatment. The physicians had informed him that his case was hopeless and that he might die at any moment. He then determined to try the new treatment. A violet ray machine was installed in the house, and every fair day the rays are concentrated and projected down Richardson's throat. After several months of treatment it is declared that his condition is so much improved that hopes for his recovery are strengthened.

Brad Dawson Placed.

Atlanta, Jan. 9.—Warden Hawk of the federal prison was notified by Attorney General Knox that Bradford C. Dawson of Columbus, Ohio, had been appointed deputy warden of the Atlanta prison, which will be opened in a few days.

EX-GOVERNOR MCCREARY won the senatorial nomination on the first ballot. He is unquestionably the choice of the people.

THE Courier-Journal, Times and Post all agree in commending the silly executive message of the puerile Usurper of the Governor's office, and as the three are Democratic papers, with a record for holding and grafting that is unrivaled by any similar journalistic trinity on earth, their approval does not make even this message pass current for statesmanship. —Louisville Commercial.

Will the Commercial please point out the silly portions of the message? What the Commercial regards as silly might be the most sensible portion of the document. The editor of the Commercial makes some silly remarks himself some times.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the American Sugar Refining Co., in Jersey City this week, President Havemeyer in presenting his report said:

It would seem that with an overflowing Federal treasury there had disappeared any reason for continuing the existing high tariff upon raw sugar. It constitutes a charge upon the consumption of nearly 2 cents a pound. This represents on an annual consumption of 2,360,000 tons $45,000,000 a year. Of this, however, only 1,360,000 tons are imported, yielding customs revenues of $49,000,000. The balance, $36,000,000, goes into the pockets of the planters. A removal of this duty on raw sugar would result in a saving to the consumer of $85,000,000.

This is a frank confession. So the consumer is "footing the bill," and it amounts to the enormous sum of $85,000,000 on his sugar alone. It would be interesting to know the total sum the American people are putting up yearly to "protect" the favored corporations. Why not give the people a little protection against these corporations?

"BENEFICENT ORGANIZATIONS."

Along with the statement that the sugar trust magnates are robbing the people of this country of $85,000,000 a year, comes this interesting dispatch from Pittsburgh in regard to the coal trust:

PITTSBURGH, PENN., January 8.—William C. Jutte, coal operator, river man, railroad promoter and capitalist, sold out his river coal interests to the Monongahela River Coal and Coke Company when it was formed. Recently he began to buy coal lands, and the river combine began an equity suit to restrain him from engaging in the coal business on the ground that he had signed an agreement not to enter the coal business for ten years. Jutte to-day filed his answer. He says that he is not going into the river coal trade, but will ship from his new mines by railroad.

Jutte then declares the purpose of the plaintiff company is to procure a monopoly of all the business of mining, shipping and selling coal on the Monongahela, Ohio and Mississippi rivers, and to exclude all persons from engaging in the business, to fix the price of coal, without regard to the demand of public trade, which combination is unlawful and criminal and in direct defiance of the laws of the United States, and their charter of incorporation is, therefore, invalid and confers upon them no right to sue and no right to exercise any of the privileges, franchises or exemptions of a corporation lawfully organized and existing under the laws of Pennsylvania.

Jutte says: "The purposes of said combination are corrupt and contrary to public policy and contrary to the laws of the United States and of Pennsylvania, and the articles of association of said company, the contract upon which it relies for relief in this case, and all other contracts made in pursuance thereof, are void and of no effect."

The last paragraph states: "The plaintiff, having procured said monopoly, proceeded to exercise the same, to the great wrong and oppression of the consumers of coal in several States and of persons engaged in furnishing labor and material for carrying on said business in its various branches."

Nothing Like Minstrelsy.

Gorton's famous minstrels are coming. Gorton's name will always be inseparably connected with all that is best in the history of American minstrelsy. The entertainment is said to surpass its last season's excellence, everything being done on a more colossal and thoroughly up-to-date style. The company comprises a score of minstrels' brightest lights, superb orchestra, vocalists, etc. Mgr. Pearl's motto is to present minstrelsy as it should be, and free from all objectionable features. Don't miss the grand street concert on day of their appearance, Wednesday, Jan. 15th.

Handkerchief Happenings!

Linen is better than cotton or part cotton because it is more absorbent, more refreshing to the face. It wears better, is the same after washing as before, finer if anything. Doesn't stain so easily, doesn't get yellow, doesn't wear fuzzy. If you realize the importance of getting linen you will buy your handkerchiefs at a store where nothing but pure flax is sold under the name of linen—and that store is Hunt's. Why then do we not sell three-fourths of the handkerchiefs in the town? Either because you don't know the best place to buy or because you forget. To-day a few words of linen handkerchiefs that have been used in store decoration. Slightly rolled, but not hurt in any way. Hemstitched wide or narrow hems, neatly embroidered borders, corners or hems. A half dozen different styles, all pure linen—12½c. each.

HERRING-HALL-MARVIN SAFE CO.,
Hamilton, Ohio, January 3, 1902.

Safety Investment Co., Maysville, Ky.—Gentlemen: We have received your favor of the 2nd and in reply beg leave to advise that the No. 107 safe shipped to you was made specially on your order, it being of special depth and no pains were spared in its construction to make it equal and superior to many that are offered to the public.

The advantage of this safe is seen in the front and rear frames that are of solid weld and not the usual formations that are used by many manufacturers. These frames are further secured by panel bars extending from front to rear and gives the safe a strength that cannot otherwise be obtained. We have sold a large number of these safes for government uses after critical examinations have been made of various makes, and have yet to find where they are not giving complete satisfaction. We trust that this be satisfactory, and are yours truly, HERRING-HALL-MARVIN SAFE CO.

UNTIL THE EVENING OF THE THIRTEENTH JANUARY WILL OUR TWENTY PER CENT. OFF SALE CONTINUE.

From present appearances a great many of our best dressers treated us badly this fall. We do the same thing when opportunities present themselves.

Whilst we have sold a great many SUITS and OVERCOATS during the past week, we still have complete lines of Stein-Bloch, Adler Bros. and Garson Meyer & Co. Suits and Overcoats to show you. We confess that we prefer to sell them at the sacrifice prices to carrying them over to next season. During the sale we give ACCUSED OF COUNTERFEITING. Officer of a Kentucky Corporation Arrested In Ecuador.

New York, Jan. 9.—D. C. Stapleton, an American, vice president and general manager at the mines in Ecuador of the Playa de Oro Mining company, has been placed under arrest in Ecuador. The company has offices in this city, and Mr. Stapleton's friends here thus far have been unable to learn anything of a satisfactory character concerning the cause of imprisonment.

A letter has been sent to Secretary of State Hay saying that, under information received here by letter and cable from a reputable citizen at Ecuador, the government had arrested and imprisoned Stapleton in Esmeraldas for the offense of counterfeiting, he having used the aluminum checks in paying workmen, and for his present refusal to pay money as required by law. The letter asks whether the department has been informed of Mr. Stapleton's arrest, and, if so, the particulars, and if no information has been received that it be obtained and publicly given to it in order that a number of other stockholders here may know the facts.

There are several large American interests in the same province. The company is a Kentucky corporation, with $70,000,000 capital. The plant is said to be the largest of the kind in the world.

Muslin Underwear!

The sale is on. It's growing larger each day. When ladies are buying $15 and $20 worth at a time you must know that it is a great sale of Underwear. You must know that it is made right, that it is in good style, that it is of fine materials, that it is under price—not under price, but about one-half price. Don't miss this sale.

A customer remarked on Monday: If you could buy laces at one-half price, if you could get work done very cheap, you still couldn't buy Underwear as nice and cheap as in your sale. It's the end of Underwear making, she said. It was a true saying by a good woman in the Big Store. Don't miss this sale.

MRS. JOHN M. DUKE.

A Former Resident of This City Dies at Portland, Oregon—To Be Buried Here.

Maysville relatives are in receipt of a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. John M. Duke, of Portland, Oregon. The end came last Monday, but no further particulars were given.

Mrs. Duke was a daughter of Coburn Deweese, and was a sister of the late Mrs. Mary Poyntz. Her husband, John M. Duke, was a well-known citizen of Maysville, and was Clerk of the Mason Circuit Court for several years. She is survived by one son, James, and one daughter, Mrs. C. B. Williams, of Portland. She leaves a number of relatives and a host of friends in Maysville who will regret to learn the sad news of her demise.

Mrs. Duke was the youngest of a family of sisters who were remarkable not only for their personal beauty, but for a charm of manner and a sweetness of disposition which gave them a warm place in the esteem and admiration of their friends. The social graces which they illustrated were in happy combination with the rarest personal attractions, and the society which they adorned was a school of manners which has long ceased to exist.

No announcement has been made in regard to the funeral services. The remains will be brought to this city for interment, and will probably reach this place next Monday or Tuesday.

Miss Lula Trisler entertained a number of her friends Tuesday evening in honor of her guests, Misses Martha Schafer and Minnie Trisler.

J. Jas. Woon & Son, Druggists.

Chief of Police Donovan received a request Thursday from the authorities of Cincinnati to try and locate some stolen property which they thought had been sent here by a negro named George Hillman, whom they had under arrest. Lottie Brazier, colored, formerly of this city, has lately been living with Hillman, and last night Policemen Tolle and Thompson made a search of the home of Lottie's mother, back of the jail. Here is what they found: Ten silver table knives, five forks, twelve teaspoons, eight tablespoons, one butter dish, three butter knives, pair of gloves, three silk mufflers, two overcoats, one ladies' cape, one fascinator and one silk umbrella. Lottie was arrested. Elijah Mossee, who works on the Tacoma, was also arrested, charged with being implicated in the effort to get away with the goods. Their trials are set for next Monday.

The healthy old man wears his gray hairs like a silver crown. What if he be threescore and ten if there is still fire in his eye, firmness in his step, command in his voice and wisdom in his counsel? He commands love and reverence. Yet how few wear the mantle of age with dignity. Dim eyed, querulous of speech, halting in step, childish in mind, they "lag superfluous on the stage," dragging out the lag end of life in a simple existence. The secret of a healthy old age is a healthy middle age. The man who takes care of his stomach, who keeps his body properly nourished, will find that the body does not fall him in old age. The great value of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery lies in the preservation of the working power of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. From this center is distributed the nourishment of the whole body, the salt for the blood, the lime for the bones, phosphate for the brain and nerves. A sound stomach means a sound man. A man who keeps his stomach sound by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" will wear the crown of gray hairs as befits a monarch, with dignity and ease.

Uncle Ab. Bramel is the proud possessor of a fine buggy whip won at a recent fiddler's contest at Morningsburg.

Rev. Wm. Clark, the new minister of the Christian Church, preached his first sermon last Sunday, which was very satisfactory and highly appreciated. He is a well read young man and his fair to make a success in the ministry.

Our village folks were shocked Tuesday morning to learn of the death of Stockton Ross, only son of Mrs. Anna Ross, at 1:30 a. m. He had been suffering for years from a disease of the lungs, but was not thought to be so near his end as the sequel showed. He was always patient and uncomplaining, gentlemanly and sociable. It could be truly said of him that those who knew him best loved him most. He had hosts of friends, and in his untimely decease the community loses a bright and capable young man. He was twenty years old December 18th last. He had served as clerk in the business houses here for years, and was engaged in that capacity at the time of his death. Services were held at the Redden residence where he died, and the remains were laid to rest in the family lot at this place Wednesday morning.

For chapped and rough skin use Ray's Edelweiss Cream. It is guaranteed.

THE TELEPHONE QUESTION.

"A Subscriber" Presents Some Arguments in Favor of the Proposed Mutual System.

Editor Bulletin:—I was present at the last meeting of the Fiscal Court, when the advisability of accepting the bids for telephone privileges over the thoroughfares of Mason County was under discussion. I believe that the purpose and interest of those who objected to the acceptance of the bids were not clearly understood by the representatives of the proposed purchasers. In fact their arguments were against an alleged partiality or concession asked by one telephone company to the detriment of another.

The cases are not analogous from a legal or business point of view. Through co-operative ownership as proposed by the Mason County Telephone Company no profit or gain over the actual expense of equipment and operation will be charged; while the purchasers of this franchise are in the telephone business for profit—not for their health or a desire to place the people of Mason County under obligations to them by instituting a telephone system at a minimum cost and without profit to the company.

When looking into this matter more deeply what assurance have we that the "Maysville and Fayette Home Telephone Companies" intend giving us an efficient telephone service? Would it not be better to acquaint ourselves with the ideas these gentlemen have of a thorough and efficient telephone system before we sell these rights that have been bought and paid for by the people of Mason County?

This is not a charge or accusation, but coming events cast their shadows before, and it does not take the experienced eye of a promoter to see in the Maysville and Mt. Sterling and Lexington pikes excellent routes for a long distance telephone.

When all of the roads were offered for sale, why did the purchasers only buy these two roads and as a precaution the "Hill City pike" which parallels the "Maysville and Mt. Sterling" roads?

On the part of the Mason County Telephone Company this is not the attempt of ten, twenty or a hundred men for gain, but an undertaking of the people to provide themselves with the advantages and pleasures of a thorough and modern telephone system which insures the free use of every line in the county without additional expense to the annual rental of the boxes.

The statement has been made that to insure a complete system in Mason County would require an outlay of twenty-five thousand dollars. This statement does not need labeling, "I am a bluff." The cost of equipping a line carrying two wires, with poles and arms strong enough to accommodate six or eight wires, if the increase of boxes demanded it, would not be more than fifty dollars per mile; and there is not a pike in the county whose property owners along the route are unable to raise the funds for erecting the lines.

The interest of Maysville and the county are mutual, the gain of one is the gain of the other, and this co-operative plan means the bringing together of the most isolated parts of the county, affording better business facilities, insuring more social happiness and suggesting even greater conveniences in the future through municipal and county ownership.

Danger to Health in School.

Many people who are scrupulously careful of the health of their children in the home are strangely indifferent to the conditions prevailing in the school, says Youth's Companion. Hygiene in the public schools is a subject that is yearly receiving more and more attention, with the result that new school buildings in the larger towns and the cities conform generally to sanitary standards, but this is not true of many of the old buildings and of many schoolhouses in small places. It is the duty of all parents to know how far they fall short and why, and what is needed to make them healthy.

TOGETHER.

[Dedicated with warmest sympathy to the American People by Alfred Austin, Poet Laureate of England.]

Who say we cherish far-off feud,
Still nurse the ancient grudges?
Show me the title of this brood
Of self-appointed judges:
Their name, their race, their nation, clan,
And we will teach them whether
We do not, as none others can,
Feel, think and work together!

Both speak the tongue that Milton spoke,
Shakespeare and Chatham wielded,
And Washington and all his folk
When their just claim was yielded.
In both lips, both hearts, both pray,
Dirge death, and thus the tether
Grows tighter, tenderer, every day,
That binds the two together.

Our ways are one, and one our aim,
And one will be our story,
Who fight for freedom, not for fame,
From duty, not for glory:
Both stock of the old home, where blow
Shamrock, and rose, and heather,
And every year link arms and go
Through its loved haunts together.

Should envious aliens plan and plot
'Gainst one, and now the other,
They swift would learn how strong the knot
Binds brother unto brother.
How quickly they would change their tack
And show the recreant feather,
Should Star and Stripe and Union Jack
But float inast-high together.

Now, let us give one hearty grip,
As by true men is given,
And now fraternal fellowship
That never shall be riven:
Be fair or foul the weather,
Should need arise, face all the world
And stand or fall together.
Kent, England.
